

CHAPPIE NETWORK – CONTACT DETAILS

Name: Dr Stacey Wyke
Organisation: Health Protection Agency, Cardiff CF14 4YS
Telephone: 02920 687231
Email: wykesm@cardiff.ac.uk

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?

Not directly involved in prevention strategies but international research to chemical health threats, household chemical consumer product exposure and better use of poisons centre data to inform risk assessment and risk management measures of household chemical consumer products.

How can you help other in the network?

- International research
- Experience of EU funding – grant applications.
- Project management and liaising and engaging with European partners.
- Offer a broader perspective and how the network can be applied to European experiences.

Name: Jayne Jenkins
Organisation: Vale of Glamorgan Council
Telephone: 01446 704605
Email: jajenkins@valeofglamorgan.gov.uk

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?

Child Pedestrian Training.

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?

More funding.

How can you help other in the network?

Happy to provide any information or resources on road safety awareness particularly for children.

Name: Maura Matthews
Organisation: Health Challenge Caerphilly
Telephone: 01495 235009
Email: matth2@caerphilly.gov.uk

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?

- Chairing on multi-disciplinary Accident and Injury Group within Caerphilly.
- Co-ordinating Health promotion activities in relation to falls prevention.
- Developing a local accident and injury plan.

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?

- Raise the profile of accident and injury prevention internationally and locally.
- A clear strategy from WAG to practise our local plans.
- Some funding to develop initiatives.

CHAPPIE NETWORK – CONTACT DETAILS

How can you help other in the network?

- Share information.
- Offer contacts, open up other networks.
- Provide training opportunities.

Name: Lucy Hancock
Organisation: Ceredigion Public Health Team
Telephone: 07980710978
Email: lucy.hancock@nphs.wales.nhs.uk

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?

In our area we have:

- Home safety equipment scheme in Flying Start.
- Crucial crew.
- Trained health visitors and others regarding child safety.
- We're considering developing an action plan.
- Distributed SWERCOT DVD.
- Kerbcraft.
- Work with family centres for child safety week.

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?

- Action plan.
- Statutory requirement.

How can you help other in the network?

Share what we do.

Name: Lorraine Childs
Organisation: Health – Flying Start & Sure Star
Telephone: 01633 647420
Email: lorraine.childs@gwent.wales.nhs.uk

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?

Co-ordinate home safety 0-5s, have birth packs – mobile baby packs, fireguards, safety gates, reigns given out to vulnerable parents, fire safety checks. Have a magnetic leaflet/info booklet regarding safety and basic first aid produced by parents. I sit on injury prevention group from Torfaen. Have healthy awards scheme for early years e.g. Playgroup, nurseries etc. Includes safety as one of four themes.

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?

Help with stats and proving outcomes to funders, Showing evidence based practice, updating knowledge and inputting into action plan and strategy.

How can you help other in the network?

Share experience regarding loan safety, scheme involving parents, networking with relevant agencies, healthy Awards Scheme for early years (rolls out to all child care providers in Torfaen).

CHAPPIE NETWORK – CONTACT DETAILS

Name: Anne Duff
Organisation: Carmarthenshire County Council
Email: aduff@carmarthenshire.gov.uk

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?

DVD – Child safety training packages, Crucial crew, Road Safety, Developing forum and action plan.

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?

- Action plan.
- Funding.

How can you help other in the network?

- Action plan.
- DVD

Name: Julie McDonald
Organisation: NPHS – Local Public Health Team, Merthyr Tydfil
Telephone: 01685 358 560
Email: Julie.mcdonald@nphs.wales.nhs.uk

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?

Jointly managing Home Safety equipment scheme – ‘Safe & Sound’ for Merthyr Tydfil.

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?

- Increased funding.
- Be kept up to date with new strategies and developments.

How can you help other in the network?

- Knowledge of setting up/managing a Home Safety Scheme.
- Could host meeting – Merthyr Tydfil LHB - FREE

Name: Alex Capleton
Organisation: Health Protection Agency
Email: Please contact via: Karen.mcfarlane@childreninwales.com

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?

Involved in development of children’s environment and health strategy. Interested in childhood poisonings and prevention.

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?

Could possibly assist with venue at Heath Hospital.

How can you help other in the network?

Be involved in evaluation of initiatives, provide information on children’s environment and health strategy presentation, information exchange.

CHAPPIE NETWORK – CONTACT DETAILS

Name: Phillip Diamond
Organisation: Blaenau Gwent – LSCB
Email: Phil.diamond@blaenau-gwent.gov.uk

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?
Included as a priority in our children and young people plan.

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?
Information, good practice, help determine priorities, e.g. home safety versus road accident.

How can you help other in the network?
Share good practice when available.

Name: Mrs Sarah Jones
Organisation: Cardiff Council
Telephone: 02920871845
Email: sajones@cardiff.gov.uk

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?
Developing Action Plans, building network

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?
Time, A&E Data from UHW who serve Cardiff, mapping if child health/injury within Cardiff.

How can you help other in the network?
Presently limited but am happy to support projects.

Name: Nicola Dyke
Organisation: National Poisons Information Service
Telephone: 02920715554
Email: Nicola.dyke@cardiffandvale.wales.nhs.uk

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?
Just starting ideas stage.

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?
Not sure yet, networking.

How can you help other in the network?
Poisoning expertise.

CHAPPIE NETWORK – CONTACT DETAILS

Name: Tracey Evans
Organisation: Merthyr Tydfil County Borough Council
Telephone: 01685 727 401
Email: tracey.evans@merthyr.gov.uk

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?

Jointly manage Safe and Sound (Home Safety) Scheme in Merthyr Tydfil.

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?

Funding – very small pot of funding available in Merthyr. At present we are not able to offer Home Safety equipment free of charge, however one of our priorities through Cymoth is Vulnerable Families – next year and funding may change this.

How can you help other in the network?

If anyone needs information on setting up a safe and sound scheme or maintaining and promoting a scheme, I would be prepared to share knowledge etc.

Name: L. Caddy/ A. Morgan/ Robert Powell
Organisation: Fair Trading Offices
Telephone: 01443 425 777

What are you up to in terms of accident prevention?

Child car seat checks, WALES Home Safety Council Puppet Caravan – available to use across Wales, surveys into “product safety” and investigation of consumer complaints and accidents.

What do you need to move accident prevention forward?

- Convince more Senior Managers to allocate more time/manpower to it.
- Funding
- Evidence based initiatives to promote findings etc.

How can you help other in the network?

- Updated on internal initiatives with RCT.
- Offer specific skills/information if required.
- Undertake the joint working parties.