

Volunteer Role: Young Resource Co-Producer

Children in Wales is the national umbrella body for organisations and individuals who work with children, young people and their families in Wales. Young Wales is a Children in Wales initiative funded by Welsh Government. We are about listening to young people and empowering their voices. Our work is built on the ideas of sharing, informing and changing policy and practice.

Purpose of the role	We are looking for young volunteers (11-25 years old) to lead and co-produce a resource that will be developed into an exhibition for National Museum Wales which documents Children's Rights in Wales.
Location	Blended: Online meetings and at the Children in Wales Office in Cardiff.
Hours and Commitment	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To attend a volunteer induction and training on Children's Rights in Wales.• To participate in 8 meetings across the project.
Main Tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To meet with your team to design and develop activity resource packs.• To decide how the resource should be shared across Wales.• To work with National Museum Wales staff to curate the final piece ready for it to be exhibited.
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The ability to work in a team.• To regularly attend meetings.• Good communication skills.
Benefits of Volunteering	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You will develop a range of skills and experience that will look great on your CV!• Be able to access free training from Children in Wales.• Have the opportunity to meet other young people from across Wales.• A token of appreciation may be provided at the end of the project. Reasonable, pre agreed volunteer expenses may also be given.
How to apply	Volunteering Wales (www.volunteering-wales.net) For any queries: rebecca.bennett-wilding@childreninwales.org.uk Rebecca Bennett-Wilding (Volunteer Coordinator)

Children in Wales is an inclusive organisation and we therefore positively welcome children and young people from a variety of backgrounds, cultures and communities to become young volunteers. All young people will be treated fairly throughout your experience with us and support will be provided wherever possible to ensure you are able to positively and actively contribute.