Article 2: All children have these rights no matter what their differences are

It's okay to be different by Todd Parr (available in Welsh)

It's Okay to Be Different cleverly delivers the important messages of acceptance, understanding and confidence in an accessible, child-friendly format featuring Todd Parr's trademark bold, bright colours and silly scenes. Targeted to young children first beginning to read, this book will inspire kids to celebrate their individuality through acceptance of others and self-confidence.

Your hair is your crown - Jessica Dunrod (available in Welsh)

Discover the true magical colours of Wales, Hope as she learns that magical things happen when her beautiful Afro hair gets wet, and her curls are unleashed. Follow Hope as she is transported into a Welsh wonderland where Hope meets Dewi the Dragon, who flies her across Cardiff and introduces her to Afrodite the mermaid.

A tribute to the author's Welsh-West Indian heritage and our glorious multicultural society!

My Skin, Your Skin - Laura Henry-Allain MBE (available in Welsh)

My Skin Your Skin is a powerful book to help children and adults have meaningful discussions about race and anti-racism. Most importantly, the book empowers children to be the best versions of themselves; to have self-love, self-esteem and self-worth, irrespective of their skin colour. This book was specifically written by Early Years expert and children's media creator, Laura Henry-Allain MBE, to support parents, teachers and carers to explain what racism is, why it is wrong, and what children can do if they see it or experience it. It also explores how important it is for children to celebrate their achievements and greatness
