

CHILDREN IN WALES 30th ANNIVERSARY BUNTING COMPETITION

- Creative opportunity for schools and community groups to raise awareness of Children's Rights and get children and young people thinking about which rights are most important to them, while having fun.

Background

2023 – 2024 is Children in Wales' 30th anniversary year. To celebrate this important milestone, we are organising a creative competition for schools and community groups. We are asking participants to create their own bunting design based on their chosen children's right. A comprehensive list of children's rights can be found here: <https://bit.ly/3Xh6LQf>
All bunting created will be displayed at Children in Wales' annual Young Wales festival in November 2023.

The Prize

- £25 voucher for the first, second and third place winning participants.
- Free annual Children in Wales membership for the school/community group of the participant awarded first place
- A feature in Children in Wales' e-magazine Winter edition for the school/community group of the participant awarded first place.

Deadline and Submission

The deadline for submissions is Friday 29th September.

Bunting can be scanned and sent to us digitally to info@childreninwales.org.uk or posted to Children in Wales' office address which is:

Children in Wales, 21 Windsor Place, Cardiff, CF10 3BY

Please be sure to complete your group contact details alongside the bunting.

BUNTING INSTRUCTIONS

You will need:

- White card or suitable fabric (or paper if scanning)
- Bunting template (included below or create your own)
- Art and craft materials such as paint, colouring pens, pencils, glitter.
- A list of Children's Rights so that participants can pick which one they want to draw.

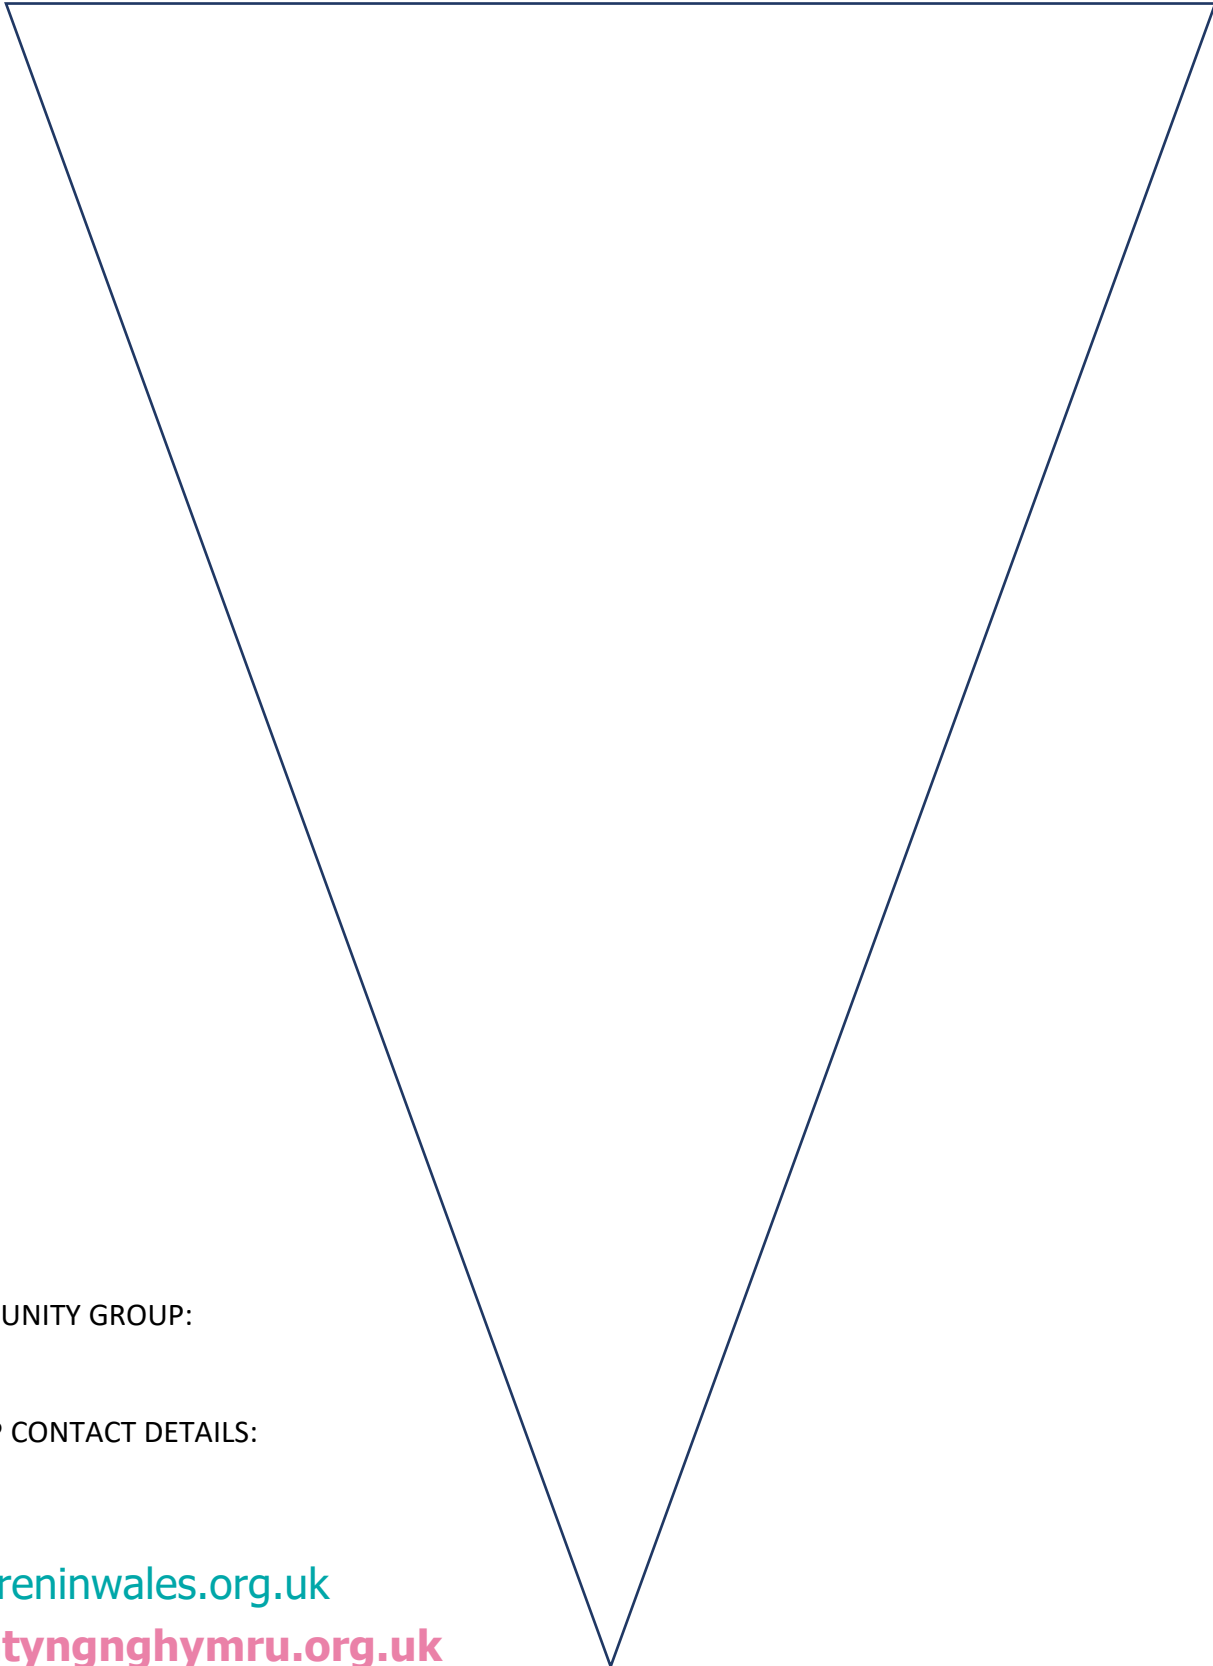

How to do it:

- Create / print the bunting template (you can use the template below or create your own), the classic bunting size 16cm for the top edge and 22cm for the sides.
- Leave to dry / set depending on materials
- Once artwork is dry, please ensure that the participant's full name is included on the sheet of paper / bunting so that we can easily select the winner.
